"CHRISTMAS IS"

Christmas is not just A Christmas tree.
Christmas is love
for you and me.
It's not the presents,
nor the balls,
or even the snow that falls.
Christmas to me
is love.
Like the beauty of a dove.
The birth of Jesus is why Christmas Is!

This poem was written by Candy Farrar, a sixth grade student. It was a Christmas present to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDaniel.

AFTER CHRISTMAS SALE
We've had a terrific Christmas selling season. It's left us with some great trade-ins and, we've just received a host of brand new Wurlitzer pianos and organs.
Some trade-ins have been handled with tender loving care, really beauties.
Others I just want to get out of my store-room. Come on in and make an offer.

MRS. JOSEPH FRANKLIN VAUGHAN, II
the former Miss Katherine Ann Mitchell

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Katherine Ann Mitchell of Appomattox, to Mr. Joseph Franklin Vaughan, II, of Spout Spring, was an event of Saturday, December 27, 1975, at six o'clock in the evening in the Liberty Baptist Church sanctuary in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore LeVonn Mitchell and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Franklin Vaughan. Grandparents of the bridal pair present were Mr. and Mrs. Vernell Mitchell, paternal grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Larkin Harvey, maternal grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie R. McCormick, maternal grandparents of the groom.

The Reverend H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of the Liberty Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony and was assisted by Reverend Gene Mims, pastor of the Gober Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Harold Wright, organist, and Mr. Clyde Frederick Mitchell, soloist and uncle of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music. Songs which were sung included: "The Wedding Song", "I Love You Truly", "Sometimes", and "The Wedding Prayer". As a part of the service the bride and groom sang to each other, "Till There Was You" from "The Music Man."

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. Her gown was designed in Victoria style, eleganced with high neckline and long fitted sleeves with contoured ruffled edging. The full gathered skirt was trimmed with delicate lace ribbon wrapping around the empire waistline. The fabric was of satin faced rayon organza with sheer yoke trimmed in acetate and nylon lace outlined with pearls. The hand sewn sleeves were ornamented with lace and pearl to the elbow. Ruffles of lace trimmed the hemline of the dress and chapel train. Her veil was a Juliet cap ornate with lace and pearls with layers of netting flowing in contours to the elbow. She carried a bouquet formed with red and white tea roses, holly, white tulle, and German Bareathe of Colonial styling.

Miss June Carol Wood, maid of honor, wore a gown of red velvet in Victorian style with bodice and midriff of ivory chiffon with ivory heirloom lace trimming the collors and cuffs of velvet. She carried an ivory velvet muff with holly wreath and Christmas balls attached with streamers of red velvet ribbon.

The bride was also attended by Miss Cynthia Lynn Calvert of Woodbridge, Va., Miss Debra Ann Stratton of Concord, Miss Margaret Leslie Ferguson of Altavista and cousin of the bride, Miss Julie Gail Williams of Lynchburg and cousin of the groom, Miss Charlene Marie Rush and Miss Joan Marie Coleman of Appomattox.

Miss Meggan Beth Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Mitchell, cousin of the bride was flower girl.

Master Joey Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Moore and cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mr. Joseph Franklin Vaughan was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Mr. William Edward Lewis, cousin of the groom, Mr. Stephen Hunter Marshall, Mr. William Christopher Hubbard, Mr. Kenneth Warren Jamerson, Jr., Mr. William Edward Jamerson, Jr. and Mr. James Frederick Mitchell, brother of the bride; all of Appomattox.

The church was seasonally decorated with white poinsettas, magnolia, attached with white velvet bows banked by lighted candelabra. The windows were lighted with hurricane lamps in traditional style with greens. The service was climaxed by the tolling of the church bell.

Mrs. Marshall Cunningham, cousin of the bride, served as mistress of ceremonies.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Appomattox High School and is presently a junior at Virginia Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. The groom is a 1973 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by the Times-Virginian Printing Corporation

Following the wedding ceremony the bride's parents entertained their guests with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Hostess were Mrs. Mildred Richardson, Mrs. Betsy Caldwell and Mrs. June Chenault.

Serving the cake were Mrs. Scottie Woody, cousin of the bride and Rhondy Trent. Residing at the punch bowl were Mrs. Betty Daymude and Mrs. Betsy Mitchell, aunts of the bride.

Following a southern wedding trip the couple will reside in Lynchburg.
